

AMERICAN FESTIVAL 2012

Celebrating American arts, culture, ideas

Institute for Innovation and Creativity

Innovation Creativity Culture Critical Thought

A year-long series of exhibitions, performances, talks, and discussions at the ARTS CENTER AT ACS ATHENS

In support of the Arts Center at ACS mission to promote Greek - American cultural exchange, and to celebrate the American roots of ACS Athens, the Institute for Innovation and Creativity at ACS Athens and the Arts Center at ACS seek to host a series of programs throughout the year that showcase a wide array of American artists, performers and art forms; thinkers and their ideas and inventions; and cultural traditions.

These programs may take the form of concerts, dance and theater performances, lectures, discussions, informal artists' talks, author's readings, film showings, exhibitions, food festivals, fashion shows, classes and workshops scheduled throughout the Spring and Autumn of 2012. Programs will be open to ACS Athens students, faculty, parents, alumni and the wider Athens community. Our goal is to host a minimum of 10 discrete events in 2012 under the American Festival banner.

To make the American Festival 2012 a reality, the IIC and the Arts Center at ACS Athens seek support from US institutions and organizations in Greece, as well as from ACS Athens parents, alumni and community partners in the form of:

- Offering a performance, presentation, informal talk, formal lecture, reading, exhibition or demonstration showcasing their own artistry, performance skills, thinking, work, and/or invention
- Facilitating contact with individuals and groups from outside the school community (in Greece and in the US) who could present their work in Athens as part of the Festival program
- Connecting us with sources of funding and sponsorships to support Festival programs.

If you can help in any of these ways -- or in any others -- please contact Steve Medeiros, Director, Institute for Innovation and Creativity at ACS Athens at medeiros@acs.gr or 30-210-6393-200, x302.

The Institute for Innovation and Creativity is an initiative of ACS Athens